IHBFE is a culturally relevant program supporting single women and their families with individualized supports as they make their journey through a transition from instability and poverty to stability and prosperity.

Modelled on Toronto's Woodgreen Homeward Bound project with 80% success rate in addressing the needs of single women and children through employment training and wrap around supports.

IHBFE MANDATE

TO MOVE
INDIGENOUS WOMEN
AND THEIR FAMILIES
FROM POVERTY TO PROSPERITY AND
HOME OWNERSHIP
THROUGH EDUCATION AND EMPLOYMENT STRATEGIES.

This program will support First Nations, Inuit and Metis participants through a journey helping them to meet success by including cultural teachings from stories, practises, language and identity. To create a sense of entitlement, belonging and purpose.

We invite you to join us on this extraordinary journey...

FENFC Mission

To enhance all aspects of Native life while extending friendship to the community.
